Dear NYU Steinhardt Community,

It has been a challenging time for us all, and I thank you for your flexibility, your patience, and your innovative spirit in the midst of rapidly changing circumstances.

Thank you for being there for each other.

Our community is here to support you. Check the NYU Steinhardt Coronavirus webpage for the latest information and reach out to your departments, advisors, instructors, and supervisors with any questions or concerns.

As we begin a spring recess none of us imagined, make space to rest and take care of yourselves and your loved ones.

Pamela
