

Pia Bhatia <pb919@georgetown.edu>

From Dean Celenza: Commencement announcement

2 messages

Dean Chris Celenza <collegedeans@georgetown.edu>
Reply-To: Dean Chris Celenza <collegedeans@georgetown.edu>
To: pb919@georgetown.edu

Wed, Mar 18, 2020 at 12:29 PM

View this email in your browser

Dear Students:

As these past weeks have unfolded, we at Georgetown have pulled together as a community. We have worked to limit the spread of COVID-19, understanding that doing so keeps us safe, even as it will save the lives of countless vulnerable people. We have made decisions, sometimes difficult ones, accordingly.

Earlier today, President DeGioia announced that Commencement activities will be postponed until a later date.

I know how disappointing it is, especially to our seniors, to miss this ceremony. It is to your faculty and advisor, as well. And for me, as Dean, it has been rewarding beyond measure to be with our graduating class, as its members finish their undergraduate careers and begin a new phase of their lives. Many other ceremonies, too, have been important for our graduates. There will hopefully be opportunities to celebrate all these achievements in the near future.

We are working to preserve the community experience of Commencement, in the hopes of finding ways to celebrate your achievement as a class. We are, as Fr. Matt Carnes has said, a communitas ad dispersionem — a community in dispersion, but fundamentally still connected with one another.

All of the faculty and administration in the College are immensely proud of you. I wish you well, and I look forward to the day when you can return to campus and we can be together again.

Yours sincerely,

Dean Celenza

Christopher S. Celenza, Ph.D., Dr.phil.
Dean of Georgetown College
Professor, History and Classics

Copyright © 2020 Georgetown College, Georgetown University, All rights reserved.

Georgetown College periodically will send you updates and announcements that are pertinent to keeping you abreast of the latest news, events, and deadlines.

Our mailing address is:

Georgetown College, Georgetown University
108 White-Gravenor
37th And O Streets Nw
Washington, DC 20057-0001

Add us to your address book

As a student in Georgetown College, Georgetown University,
you will receive periodic updates on news and events that may be of interest to you.
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

Dean Chris Celenza <collegedeans@georgetown.edu>
Reply-To: Dean Chris Celenza <collegedeans@georgetown.edu>
To: pb919@georgetown.edu

Wed, Mar 18, 2020 at 12:31 PM

View this email in your browser

Dear Students:

As these past weeks have unfolded, we at Georgetown have pulled together as a community. We have worked to limit the spread of COVID-19, understanding that doing so keeps us safe, even as it will save the lives of countless vulnerable people. We have made decisions, sometimes difficult ones, accordingly.

Earlier today, President DeGioia announced that Commencement activities will be postponed until a later date.

I know how disappointing it is, especially to our seniors, to miss this ceremony. It is to your faculty and advisor, as well. And for me, as Dean, it has been rewarding beyond measure to be with our graduating class, as its members finish their undergraduate careers and begin a new phase of their lives. Many other ceremonies, too, have been important for our graduates. There will hopefully be opportunities to celebrate all these achievements in the near future.

We are working to preserve the community experience of Commencement, in the hopes of finding ways to celebrate your achievement as a class. We are, as Fr. Matt Carnes has said, a communitas ad dispersionem — a community in dispersion, but fundamentally still connected with one another.

All of the faculty and administration in the College are immensely proud of you. I wish you well, and I look forward to the day when you can return to campus and we can be together again.

Yours sincerely,

Dean Celenza

Christopher S. Celenza, Ph.D., Dr.phil.
Dean of Georgetown College
Professor, History and Classics

This message was sent to all undergraduate students.
(Leadership team: this is your copy)

Copyright © 2020 Georgetown College, Georgetown University, All rights reserved.
Georgetown College periodically will send you updates and announcements that are pertinent to keeping you abreast of the latest news, events, and deadlines.

Our mailing address is:
Georgetown College, Georgetown University
108 White-Gravenor
37th And O Streets Nw
Washington, DC 20057-0001

Add us to your address book

As a student in Georgetown College, Georgetown University,
you will receive periodic updates on news and events that may be of interest to you.
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.